Research Note: 3001

Section	Golly Badges: 1980's era
Title	1980's No Name Designs
Description	A number of 1980's designs are shown in the checklist with 'No name' on reverse. Some of these are easier to find than others. This note takes a closer look at all 'No Name' designs from the 1980's in order to re-confirm the existence of them all.
Further Detail	Collectors should be aware that it is common for the pin on reverse to obscure the backstamp. Sometimes only a small part of the backstamp remains visible as shown below on the Mountie:    Mountie – pin over stamp    Mountie – stamp close-up   On other designs the backstamp appears so faintly stamped that it could easily be mistaken for a 'No Name' design. In all cases it is necessary to closely inspect the reverse of a design to confirm that it is a genuine 'No Name' example. The table below lists all 'No Name' designs from the White suit Astronaut (75aN) to the Standard (105N) alongside images of the actual badges (front and back). A placeholder exists for those badges in the checklist but for which we have not yet received an image. A green box indicates a 'No Name' design that isn't listed in the seventh edition checklist
